

Kelly Casaday

Kelly Casaday is the president of W Communications, a small advertising company based in Salt Lake City. In addition to his services on the Committee of Consumer Services, he also serves on the Sandy City Transportation Committee and is the former chairman of the Sandy City Board of Adjustments. Kelly has played a key role in Utah Republican Party politics for many years. He has worked on the campaigns of Governor Mike Leavitt, Senator Bob Bennett, former Congressman Merrill Cook, and many other state and local races.

Kelly and his wife, Ann, have five children. He represents small commercial consumers with his term expiring June 30 2008.